DaCdb Quick Start Guide for Members

If you are new to Rotary, congratulations! You have joined the world's foremost service organization, with over 1.2 million members in nearly 200 countries. And, if you are new to DaCdb, you are about to open a whole new way to enhance your Rotary experience.

DaCdb is an acronym for District and Club database, but most of us just call it daK-dee-bee. It provides a central database for your Rotary Club and your Rotary District. It allows you to update your personal record, review information about other members in your club, contact other members of your club by email and telephone, view or print a club directory for your personal use, and a variety of other functions.

To access DaCdb, you may click on the link you received in the welcome letter or type in "DaCdb.com" in the address line of your browser, or just use the direct URL address: www.DaCdb.com/rotary

This takes you to a screen that looks like the one below.

Then, click on the LOG IN Here link, and it takes you to the DaCdb log on screen.

Quick Start Tip: Generally, your district website (www.RotaryXXXX.org) contains a link to DaCdb. Encourage your webmaster to add a link to your club website as well.

When you get to the actual log-on screen (see below) you will need your (1) email address, (2) password (member number – available from your Rotarian magazine, your club secretary or various Rotary reports) and (3) your club number (also available from your club secretary). You may change your password after you log-on.

DaCdb

The District and Club database was developed to assist districts and clubs to meet their administrative reporting requirements to Rotary International, and to foster easier communications within the district for the district leadership, district committees, club leadership, and of course the members of Rotary Clubs.

2. Password: This is usually your Rotary Member number. If you don't know your Rotary Member number, look at the mailing label on the front of your Rotarian magazine (it is in the upper left hand portion of the label, and is the 7 significant digits: e.g. 2057275); or ask your club secretary.
 - a. If you do NOT have a Rotary Member number yet, then try using your last name in the password field.
3. Club Number: Again this is available from your club secretary or other club officers. This field is not required to log in for non-officers of the district.

Quick Start Tips:

- Before you Sign In, create a shortcut on your desktop by clicking on the "Create DaCdb Short Cut" link at the bottom LEFT (under the LOG IN button) of your page. (circled link above; and DRAG it onto your desktop).
- Click the "Remember Me" and it is not necessary to fill in your information again.

NAVIGATING THROUGH DaCdb

Navigation through DaCdb is accomplished by clicking on tabs/links at the top of the homepage.

1. The top line of tabs is the primary way to navigate and they will remain the same wherever you are in the database. Most of what you will need to do, you will do from the "My DATA" and the "My CLUB" tab.
2. The second row consists of sub-menu links which takes you to various other functions. (Click on them to get familiar with navigating through all the available information.
3. Then on the HOME page only, the 3rd row of links (your Dashboard) provides an overview of facts and figures about your club and your district.

Quick Start Tip: Scroll down through the home page. It briefly explains how DaCdb works, its security levels, and it has links to other helpful information.

Quick Start

Although all the navigation tabs link you with the various aspects of DaCdb, the two main tabs are probably all that you ever need! These are the My CLUB and the My DATA tabs.

Let's explore the My DATA tab first. From this tab you will be able to see all the information that has been entered for you by your club secretary. You can update and keep this information current with just a few keystrokes. From this screen you can find a member, view or print a club directory, edit your data, change your password and enter make-up meeting that you attended. (Click on the My DATA tab.)

Quick Start Tip: Clicking on the “Enter Makeup” button below your picture provides a quick and easy way to notify your club secretary that you attended a meeting at another Rotary Club for one that you missed at your club. When you click on the “Enter Makeup” button a new screen opens. Your name already appears, so you simply need to enter the date of your makeup and where you attended. (Completing the other members present is helpful to your club secretary, but not required.) Be sure and click the gold “Submit” button to send the information to your club secretary.

Enter Banked Makeup Request

To enter a makeup, please complete and submit the following form below. This entry will be added to the makeup bank in an Pending state for the selected member. If the Club Secretary has elected to receive notification emails, an email will be sent notifying them that you have entered this makeup request. You are entering a Makeup for multiple members that may not all subscribe to the Club Weekly Attendance. Click here if you are interested in learning more about the Weekly Club Attendance.

In the My DATA tab home screen, you see it has all the data that was entered when you initially joined the club or when your club began using DaCdb. It is important that you keep this information up to date, as your personal information will not only be used for club communications, but also for communications from your Rotary District and Rotary International as well.

Using the Sub-Menu LINKS under the My DATA tab:

From this screen, you will primarily be concerned only with the four sub-menu links indicated above. These sub-menu links help you do the basic functions necessary to keep your data current for fellow members and club officers to view and use.

Change MY Password: Your default password is your Rotary Member number. While many members are content to use this, others of us prefer to use a personalized password. To create a new password, click on the Change MY Password tab above.

- Type in your old password
- Type in your new password
- Verify your new password by re-typing it!
- Click the “Update” button at the bottom of the screen

Change Password

Use the form below to optionally update your password settings. If you do not want to change your password at this time, click on the [CANCEL] button.

We strongly recommend that you take this opportunity to change your password from the system default. Make your password something this is unique and meaningful to you.

Your new password:

- Must be at least six (6) characters long
- Cannot equal your login name
- Password IS Case-Sensitive

User Password Change:

Verify New Password:

Quick Start Tip: Whenever data is CHANGED or ADDED into DaCdb, there will always be an “Update” Button in a contrasting color. If the Update Button is not used, your changes will be lost! So ALWAYS look for the Update Button when you want to record changes or additions.

Edit My Data: You may “edit” your data by using the sub-menu link, OR by clicking the blue [\[Edit\]](#) next to your name on the View screen. (See the [\[Edit\]](#) link on the screen shot at the bottom of page 3.) When you click either blue [\[Edit\]](#) link, or the Edit My DATA sub-menu link, a new screen appears with another set of sub-menu functions or edit tabs. (see screen shot below.)

You really only need to concern yourself with the first seven (7) edit tabs (Member, Photo, Contact, Login, S/P: Spouse/Partner, Business and PData: Participation Data). Each tab contains data input fields for that particular function. As you complete the input fields for a particular tab, click on the next tab. The data input fields are self explanatory and if you make a mistake, it is easily corrected by coming back to the tab and re-typing the information in the data input field. REMEMBER when you have completed your changes, click on the bright gold "Update" Button to save your changes, otherwise all your work will be LOST!

Note: Two of the tabs are slightly different and require an additional step. These are the Contact edit tab and the PData edit tab.

Contact tab: On this screen, information is entered in several different ways.

1. Phone Information and Emergency Contact data is entered directly in the spaces provided.
2. Internet Information is entered by the use of "drop-down menus".
3. Contact Preferences are also selected by the use of "drop-down menus", but before you can select what information you want to appear, you have to 'populate' these windows by using the "Add" function and/or the "Edit" (pencil) functions found at the upper section of the screen

Well, that’s it – and all that you probably need to know to get started using your District and Club database. You may want to expand your knowledge and check out some additional features of DaCdb and we have provided a summary guide below to what you can find more about all the Home page tabs and sub-menu links.

Of course, as you begin to advance through Rotary and become a club officer, many more features of DaCdb will be available to you. When you reach that point, you will want to consult our DaCdb Guide for Club Officers, which is listed in Training Resources and Materials section, located under the HELP tab.

Should you encounter any problems, you may consult our Help tab, ask your club secretary (or in larger clubs the Executive Secretary, or the Club Communications Officer), and/or your District Communications Officer (who is listed as the first person on the LEFT side of the Help screen.)
